DECLARATION OF EDNA HALL

Edna Hall states:

1. I reside at 1266 W. 38th Street, Ashtabula, Ohio, 44004. with my husband, Hargis Hall.
2. Before my son, Hargis Hall, was incarcerated he was my primary caregiver as well as my husband's primary caregiver.
3. Once our son went to prison, I had to provide care for my husband who has numerous serious medical problems and now needs a Kidney transplant to save his life. His son, Hargis Hall, is likely the only donor and has agreed to help his father by donating his Kidney.
4. Due to my deteriorating health and a recently diagnosed colon problem, I cannot continue to provide care for my husband.
5. I am in the process of collecting all of my and my husband's medical records to submit to the Court to verify the above facts regarding our health and inability to provide self-care.

6. If the Court grants our son's motion for compassionate release he is able to reside in our home as long as necessary and to provide care for us as he was doing prior to his incarceration.

7. If the Court grants his release we can arrange transportation of our son from FCI Cumberland to our home within 24 hours notice of his release.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. section 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 27th day of August 2020 at Ashtabula, Ohio.
